"Make Yourslf at Home" at the Oyen Opera House on Thursday, Oct. 23rd.

In this day of dance and gaiety "Make Yourself at Home" Harry Segall's up-to-the-minute musical comedy, which comes to the Oyen Theatre on Thursday October 23rd. will be found in full keeping with your native mood. Relaxation from the business trials is gained largely through the theatre and plays requiring little thought are mostly in popular demand. With this idea in view "Make Yourself at Home" was built. It contains an interesting story of romance embellished with comedy to which is set a lively score which includes singable whistlable and danceable tunes. In fact the play is just one joy ride on the billows of mirth. The music is by Earl Carrol, author of "So Long Letty" "Canary Cottage" and "The Love Mill".

Special Music For Thanksgiving Service

Special music has been arranged for Thanksgiving service on Sunday evening next in the Methodist Church. This will take the form of a solo and anthmn.

Pre-War Days Are Quickly Resumed

Canadians are Apt to Forget that the Struggle is Not Finished Yet.

It's funny how quickly we slip back into the old grooves of life, even though jarred out of them by years of war and wrenched by sad partings.

Isn't it true that in most Canadian homes life goes on today pretty much as it did five blank years ago, the stalwart sons come to the breakfast table with the same noisy greetings, though there is, perhaps, a shade deeper ring to their voices? Returned from war the head of the family sits in his old accustomed place at story time, perhaps bringing a new kind of prince and knight for the youngsters.

With the men home life goes on pretty much as before. The harsh old realities of war are slipping into the misty background. We can never forget the price in flesh and blood; we could easily forget the price in treasure.

When we hear of plans for the Victory Loan, 1919 we are brought back with a jerk to the hard fact that the cost of Canada's Victory has not been fully paid and that the future lays burdens upon us also.

Proportional Representation —No. 2

In last week's article on the above subject some of the inequalities of our present system of electing representatives to public office were pointed out, the growth of the P.R. method of election noted, and one or two principles underlying that method outlined. In conclusion it was stated that an endeavor would be made to explain the method of voting and election in this week's article.

First of all, let it be repeated and emphasized that it is the essence of representative government that every voter should be represented in the representative assembly. It is considerable proportion of the electorate come to feel that they have no voice in the Government, the distance is short to that dangerous state of mind which regards political processes as futile and hopeless. The world today, Canada included, requires to guard against this.

The theory of Proportional Representation is that each considerable party or group of opinion should be represented in parliament, or legislature, or municipal council, in proportion to its voting strength—that majorities may rule and minorities be heard. How does Proportional Representation put this theory into practice? The method used is what is known as the transferable vote.

When the ballot with the list of candidates for an office, say a municipal council, is presented, the elector, instead of marking "X" after his choice, or choices, if more than one is to be elected, as at present, votes as follows:

(a) By placing the figure 1 after his favorite candidate. The voter may also:

(b) Place the figure 2 opposite his second choice;

(c) Place the figure 3 after his third choice, and so on, numbering as many candidates as he pleases in the order of his preference, and may even so indicate his preference for a larger number of candidates than are actually to be elected.

A candidate, to ensure election, need not poll a majority, but only a certain proportion of the votes cast, called a quota. This quota is the smallest number of votes required to ensure election. For example, in a constituency electing only one member, it is not necessary even now that a candidate should poll all the votes; if he obtains one more than half he secures a majority and is elected, because no one else can poll so many. Similarly, under P.R., it would be necessary in a one-member constituency for the candidate elected to secure a clear majority. In a two-member constituency, a candidate who obtains one more than a third would be elected, for only two candidates can each poll more than a third. If three members are to be elected, it would take one more vote than a fourth of the votes cast to ensure election.

This quota necessary to election is, therefore, found by dividing the total number of votes cast by one more than the number of representatives to be elected and adding one. For example, assuming that there are three candidates to be elected, and the total vote cast was 620. The latter figure divided by four (that is, one more than the number to be elected) gives 155, and this, plus one, gives 156, which would be the quota, and as not more than three candidates could secure that number, regardless of how many might be in the field, those three would be elected.

The next question is: How are the votes counted and transferred?

(a) The first preference votes obtained by each candidate are noted—that is, the candidates opposite whose names the figure 1 has been marked by the voters.

(b) The quota is ascertained in the manner outlined above.

(c) Candidates, if any, who have received the quota, or more than the quota, are declared elected.

(d) Surplus votes of those candidates who have received more than their quota are transferred, in strict proportions, to the unelected candidates indicated as the next preferences by the voters (that is, candidates having the figure 2 opposite their names).

(e) Any further candidates who, as the result of such transfer of second preferences, have received the necessary quota are declared elected.

(f) The candidate lowest on the poll are then eliminated one after another, and the votes they receive are transferred in accordance with the next choice of the electors expressed thereon. This process is continued until the required number of candidates have obtained a quota, or the number of candidates not eliminated is reduced to the number of seats vacant.

It will be seen, therefore, that whereas under our present system the voter who marks a ballot for a canddate who is at the foot of the poll completely loses his representation in the public body for which the election is held, under Proportional Representation he, having failed to secure the election of his first choice, has his ballot transferred to his second choice; if his second choice fails of election, his vote is transferred to his third choice, and so on. Thus every voter, in the final analysis, is represented by a representative for whom he recorder a preference. Surely, a more democratic and fairer way than obtains under our present system.

(Next week some examples of how P.R. has worked out where it has been tried will be given, and possibly some of the objections raised against P.R. answered.)

Germany's New Escutcheon

Berlin.—Germany has a new escutcheon, from which the Hohenzollern arms have been eliminated. It consists of a black one-headed eagle on a gold field. The new" eagle, which has shed its erstwhile imperial crown and collar, is not a rampant bird and would look sedate enough in its sitting posture but for the color of its beak, tongue and talons, which are red.

Boycott Hits Japan

China Willing to Give Us Trade If Ships Are Provided

According to the Japanese newspaper, Nichi Nichi, the Chinese boycott on anything made in Japan is having its effect on Japanese trade. The paper estimates that Chinese imports from Japan have dropped 70 per cent to 80 per cent since the boycott began early this year. Exports out of Japan were: April, 26,840,000 yen; May, 25,670,000 yen; June, 19,860,000 yen.

The statement is made in China that if the United States and Canada put more ships on the Pacific they can get the trade that China formerly gave to Japan.

Canada's Fire Losses

Ottawa.—Fire losses sustained in Canada during 1918 by fire insurance companies totalled $19,359,252, as compared with $16,379,102 in 1917, according to the annual report of the Dominion Department of Insurance, tabled in the Commons.

Cannot Visit Mexico

British Citizens Cannot Now Enter Mexico, According to Regulation

Washington.—British citizens desiring to visit Mexico for the first time cannot get their passports vised, under instructions which Ambassador Bonillas said he had sent to the Mexican consuls. British subjects resident in Mexico, or who have interests there, were not affected, he said.

The ambassador did not know why his government had taken this step, but pointed out that the British Government had refused to vise passports for Mexicans desiring to go to Europe, when they had to pass through England. Heretofore, the entry of British subjects into Mexico had been permitted, providing they signed an agreement absolving the Mexican Government from liability for any "accident" they might sustain.

Doukhobors May Move

Verigin Says Sect May Migrate to South America

Regina, Sask.—That it is quite possible the Doukhobors in Canada will move to fresh pastures, was the statement made here by Peter Verigin, the leader of the sect. The Doukhobors own a lot of land in Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia, the largest colony being in the latter province.

If the land holdings could be disposed of, said Mr. Verigin, it would be easy to move, and South America would likely be their choice of a new home.

Chain of Imperial Aerodromes

London.—Right Hon. Mr. Weir, at a public welcome to the crew of the R.34 at Glasgow, stated that he looked forward to the time when there would be a chain of imperial aerodromes linking the main units of the Empire and connected by auxiliary services to the smaller nations. He said that he had great faith in the usefulness of coastal flying boats, as proposed in connection with Australian and West Indian coastal services. Military reasons, he stated, required the linking up of the Empire by definite routes, largely coinciding with the commercial routes. He deprecated the government action in monopolizing civil aviation, and anticipated great results from the rivalry of private firms.

Sir Robert Horne stated that the public had not yet realized the remarkable war work accomplished by the airships. The Admiralty had started with eight and finished with a hundred—beating the Germans.

Regulate Cold Storage

Washington.—Federal regulation of cold storage as an aid in reducing the cost of living was agreed to by the house agriculture committee, as recommended by the President in his address on the high cost of living. The committee reported a Bill limiting the time that food may be held in storage to twelve months, and providing that cold storage food must be plainly marked.

Keeping Fit

BY DR. SAMUEL HAMILTON.

It is because of the war that the perfect physical man has all at once become the idol of the world. You can make of yourself, even rather late in life, almost anything you like. You are not going to get fit in one day, one month, or, perhaps, a year, unless you take enough outdoor exercise to keep the circulation going and practise the athlete's first principle—to keep the system clean. He does not give his body a chance to absorb poisons. He not only takes his cold shower, after exercise, but he knows a cleansing of the intestines is important, and he takes occasionally a good regulator and liver cleanser, such as a dose of castor oil, or, what is much better, a tiny pill made up of May-apple, aloin and jalap, and sold by almost all druggists in the land as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Keep the kidneys in good order also. Avoid too much meat, alcohol or tea. Drink plenty of pure water, preferably hot water, before meals, and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking "Anuric" (anti-uric-acid). This can be obtained at almost any drug store.

Send a bottle of water to the chemist at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive free medical advice as to whether the kidneys are affected. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headaches, dizzy spells, or twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism or gout; or sleep is disturbed two or three times a night. Take heed, before too late! Get Anuric (anti-uric-acid), for it will put new life into your kidneys and your entire system. Ask your nearest druggist for it or send Dr. Pierce ten cents for trial package of "Anuric"

Explorer Finds Buried Village

Eighty Well - Preserved Frozen Bodies Were Found

Nome, Alaska.—Discovery of an ancient buried Eskimo village near Point Borrow, the "corner of the continent," was made recently by W. B. Van Valin, who has arrived here on his way to the States after spending nearly two years in the Borrow country for the University of Pennsylvania museum, gathering relics of what has been termed the "stone age" of the natives of far northwestern Alaska.

Eighty well-preserved frozen bodies were found in the village, Van Valin reported. Their clothing and the shape of their heads and other parts of their bodies differed from the clothing and bodies of the present day Eskimo. Remains of several of the Eskimos were shipped by Van Valin to the museum.

Evidently the ancient village was overtaken by some catastrophe, it is believed. None of the present natives of the Borrow section knew of the existence of the lost village.

Filling His Own Shoes

— BY —

HENRY C. ROWLAND

Copyrighted. Printed by special arrangement with Thos. Allen, Toronto.

For Ruggles was naturally convinced that Lorenz had taken advantage of his early confidence to go to work deliberately to get his promotion away from him. Lorenz would probably never have thought of trying for the managership of the Vienna branch had he not learned from Ruggles of the ready response to his application. Thereafter, Lorenz had been working quietly for his own preferment, advancing his claims of capacity as a native of Vienna and a man thoroughly acquainted from previous experience with the retail shoe trade of that city. Ruggles thought of Lorenz's recent absence. Without doubt he had gone to London to advance his application in person to the general manager, who had his headquarters there, for the Walkeasy Shoe Company had stores in most of the leading cities of the British Isles.

But that which ate like acid into Ruggles's soul was the fact that the company should not have given him due notice that his own claims were being contested. The company had not played fair, and for Ruggles to feel that the company had not played fair was akin to the conviction of an ardent patriot that his country had betrayed him. To feel that the Walkeasy Shoe Company could have been guilty of broken faith was outrageous, almost sacrilegious, yet how could its act be regarded otherwise? The action which it had taken in this matter seemed to Ruggles to be deceitful, paltry, and un-American. Lorenz, that big, gaunt, saturnine sneak, who would rather torture a mouse than sell a pair of shoes, had been promoted over his head, merely because he had certain affiliations (and these, no doubt, melodorous, if the truth were known) in the city where the branch store was to be established.

Ruggles's first emotion, after the primary shock had passed, was a profound sense of injury, not directed against Lorenz or even in fact against the company, but against his shattered ideals. His next thought was of what this disappointment meant to him as concerned the present conditions of his life. He was still no more than he had ever been—an insignificant little shoe clerk, the limit of whose importance in the social scheme of things was to unlace and remove muddy shoes from feet not always tidy, and to smile into the faces of the proletariat.

For the first time in his life he was seized with a loathing of his occupation. Darthea was right; Miss Challand was right; Ruth was right. It was a rotten, humiliating job! He wondered that he had ever seen it in this way before. It did not occur to him that he had not done so because he had always regarded the business in its larger light—as a great commercial affair of which he was a humble but necessary unit. A private soldier, an orderly, cleaning the boots of his superior on active service, does not think of himself as a valet; he thinks of himself as a soldier. In carrying a horse, he does not think of himself as a groom; he thinks of himself as a soldier, and his self-respect is not impaired. Ruggles had thought of himself as a soldier, a private in the invading army of American trade. He was not the servant of the public to whom he sold shoes; he was not the servant of the great industrial organization which was destined to carry its country's flag to where East becomes West and West East. He was nobody's servant. He was an enlisted man in the great army of American commerce, and as such entitled to his chevrons.

It never entered Ruggles's head to go to Ruth in his distress. Neither did he seriously consider an appeal to Mr. Downing. A private soldier with a sense of wrong might look to his colonel for redress, but he would scarcely think of trying to carry the matter to his king, or president or minister or secretary of war. Had Dick Downing been in Europe, Ruggles might have turned to him for counsel, but Dick was in America. However, that was not the point. Ruggles did not want the benefit of personal influence from the seats of the mighty. He wanted only a square deal from the company as a company. He considered his relations with the Downings—especially after his call on Ruth—as social rather than professional, so far as his humble part was concerned. He wanted no crumbs falling from the tables of the rich. All he wanted was a square deal!

It is possible that if Ruggles had not gone to Ruth for advice in regard to his personal affairs, he might have taken his grievance in both hands and shown it to Mr. Downing, Senior, in which case it is most probable that his wrongs would have been investigated and justice done. Mr. Downing had lost his health in not examining of just such conditions, and was cheerfully prepared to die in the same harness. But Ruggles could not do that. Mr. Downing was Mr. Downing, the president of the company and a great man, but the company that he administered was far greater than its chief executive. It was the company that was responsible to him for the injustice. It was not Mr. Downing or Ruth or Dick. The Downings had done their best to make the company a great American company, to employees as well as clients, and if they had failed it was not their fault, but that of their unworthy stewards. Ruggles felt that his quarrel was no with the Downings, but with the company, and he was prepared to fight it out as such. He felt that the Downings had been deceived in their organization as much as he.

To go to Ruth or Mr. Downing for restitution was quite impossible. It smacked too much of boot-licking and while Ruggles knew well that he ready to do almost anything with a pair of boots, he drew the line at the licking process. Besides, after the help and comfort which Ruth had rendered him, Ruggles could not bear to blow up her the company in its hollow falsity.

It seemed to Ruggles that he had given his allegiance to an octopus, a merciless, man-grinding machine of which the human toilers were mere cogs to be worn ragged and flung on to the scrap-heap. There was his father, whose machines had earned millions for the company, and who had never received over two hundred dollars a month. Damn the company! Curse the company! Ruggles grabbed up his hat and rushed out.

Forgetting his dinner, he wandered the streets aimlessly until ten o'clock, then went back to his room and to bed. He would work no longer for any greedy, soulless, treacherous combination of liars which could so treat a man! He determined to throw up his job the following day, draw the three thousand and odd francs which represented the savings of many years and which was deposited in a French bank, then take the first steamer for New York, where he would hunt up some work of an entirely different character.

Ruggles, in spite of his youth and glowing health, slept badly that night. His dreams were ugly and confused. He thought that Lorenz, with the face of a rat (suggested perhaps by the mouse episode), was leaning over his bed and trying to gnaw his feet. He struck at him in his sleep and knocked over his table-de-nuit. About dawn he fell into a heavy, sluggish sleep and did not awake until nine o'clock. Then he got up, took his sponge-bath, dressed with care, and walked slowly down into Paris. Before going to the store, he called at the bank, drew out his balance, and told the cashier that he was going away.

His mood had changed in the last few hours, and he found himself, instead of being sad, in a state of savage, smouldering resentment. It had occurred to him that, besides Lorenz, the manager of the store, whom he had always considered a good friend, had acted treacherously. He must have known what Lorenz was up to, but he had failed to put Ruggles on his guard. Ruggles decided to tell Durand what he thought of him. He felt that he would enjoy an interview with Lorenz also, but reflected that the Austrian had probably left Paris for Vienna. His packing of the morning before would indicate immediate departure. This also explained his surly, inhospitable conduct. Ruggles reflected that Lorenz had felt that he had served him a dirty trick and was on the defensive.

"I'd like to meet him out on the road somewheres," said Ruggles to himself. "He may be twice my size, but I'll bet I could give him something besides shoes to think about for a couple of days. And that darn Durand, too."

In this opinion Ruggles was quite a little beneath the medium size, but clean living and exercise had developed a frame which was solid of bone and muscle. He was also a very useful man with his fists, having gone in for boxing when living in New York, where he had belonged to the Y.M.C.A. and practiced nightly in the gymnasium.

It was about ten o'clock when he entered the store, where the first person on whom his eyes happened to fall was the young English surgeon of the British Red Cross, whom he had met the previous morning on the Avenue du Bois de Boulogne, and who was in the act of purchasing a pair of high hunting-boots. He did not see Ruggles, who, not wishing to disturb him, passed to the other side of the store, where he came upon the manager and Lorenz, standing at the door of the office engaged in conversation.

Ruggles's eyes, red-rimmed from lack of sleep, blazed up at the sight, and he could feel the blood pumping into his head. His mouth seemed suddenly to become hot and dry and his muscles tighten. He had no desire to make a scene, especially as there was a fair sprinkling of customers in the place for that early hour, and his years of training had made polite shop manners almost a second nature with him. But the sight of these two men who had so traitorously used him awakened in his system a long latent fury, and which now came boiling up and imperiously demanding expression.

Durand caught sight of Ruggles as he approached. Perhaps at the same time he saw trouble in the congested eyes, for the pink color faded from his sleek face. But he looked at Ruggles with cold disapproval.

"Why are you so late?" he demanded, in his excellent English. "We have had some customers who have been kept waiting."

"Oh, have you?" Ruggles answered. "Then what's the matter with Lorenz waiting on them?" And he glared belligerently at his enemy, whose saturnine face had become suddenly venomous. It suggested, in fact, the face of a rat, a large, combative, cornered rat, and his beady eyes glittered. Ruggles recalled his dream, which did not go far to help the situation.

"Mr. Lorenz is going away," said Durand. "He is going to Vienna to take the managership of our new store, which is to open this week."

"Oh, is he?" Ruggles's voice was ominously calm. "I guess that must be the job that was promised to me. How did the company happen to give it to Lorenz?"

The Lone Match

An Experience Which Befell King Edward

The Prince of Wales has had many strange experiences on his Canadian travels, but it is hardly likely that he will be called upon to endure such a terrible ordeal as befell his grandfather during his sojourn in Canada. One day, when crossing the prairies, he produced a cigar, and his companions followed suit. "A match, please," he requested, whereupon it was discovered that there was but one match among the whole party. Wind was tearing across the prairie, and lots were cast to determine who should attempt to keep the solitary, precious match alight. To his dismay the lot fell upon King Edward, then Prince of Wales. He lay on the ground, and his companions gathered round and stretched their coats for shelter. The match was lit—so were all the cigars. But seldom before or after, King Edward used to say, did he feel so nervous as at the moment of striking that match.

Aerial Development

Feasibility of Establishing Fast Mail Service Between Canadian and American Cities

The possibilities of aerial development are beyond those of all other means of communication and transportation now known to man. During the international race, which had as its primary object proof as to the feasibility of establishing a fast mail service between several Canadian and American cities, letters and newspapers travelled from New York to Toronto or vice versa in a very few hours. What the ultimate establishment of a regular service of this kind, which could be maintained with reasonable certainty for several months in the year, would mean to the business interests of both communities is impossible of estimation at this time. In Britain, where the airplane is in steady use for commercial purposes, including a passenger and mail schedule from London to Paris, the benefits of the air route have been proven beyond all possibility of discussion. The development there is continuing with a breadth of vision and a rapidity that show to what extent the British people regard the importance of aerial leadership in every phase of its application to modern conditions.

The international contest, which has had its advertising value for Toronto, and Canada generally, as well as for the Canadian National Exhibition, has rather emphasized the reliability of the airplane as well as its adaptability for the services of peace.—From the Toronto Globe.

Comet Approaching Earth

Cambridge, Massachusetts. — The comet discovered recently by Dr. Joel H. Metcalf, of the Harvard Observatory, will become visible to the naked eye within a short time. It is now of the eighth magnitude, but on October 16 will be four times brighter and about 44,000,000 miles from the earth. It is now near the sun, and its course will take it close to the polar star.

The weight of the transgressor is invariably light.

Many a woman smiles inwardly while crying outwardly.

How Long Can They Do It?

What Is the True Relation of Cost of Revenue in Government Operation of Roads

There is in Canada current opinion that it costs the Government $1.03 to get $1 gross revenue from the railroads which have been emancipated from the capitalistic class. A deficit of $50,000,000 in 1919 is the forecast. This straightway gives rise to conjecture as to what the true relation of cost and revenue would be if some courageous administration reached down to the bottom of our Government operation of the roads.

Thanks in part to the peculiarities of the Canadian situation, the private Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific have contributed nobly to the Government's experiment in railroad operation. This and other causes have steadily lifted the percentage of cost to gross revenue. Today it is 89 per cent. for the Grand Trunk and 81 per cent. for the Canadian Pacific. The percentage thus actually discloses the shocking scandal of surplus, rather than the uplifting inspiration of deficit.

Monthly statements, duly audited and certified, show Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk can still operate on their own motive power. The exact status of the government roads is not so clearly revealed. Why it is not is a matter of conjecture, friendly, invidious or neutral, as may be. Some irreconcilables want to know how they are to reach a conclusive audit of Canadian Northern, making a true capital investment basis for figures. Others say there is an operating deficit of more than three per cent.

What if it be so that the more wheels turn round and the faster they go, the more money they lose. If it costs 3 cents net loss to take in a dollar, isn't the taxpayer there to pay it? And doesn't the paltry 3 cents go at once back into circulation? "As long as he has a dollar left to burn, why shouldn't the taxpayer writhe and turn?"

A staunch supporter of a western co-operative grain concern with a long and honorable record of losses used to refer to its "turnover" as its turnunder." Happily free of the embarrassment of literary cult, he has given the government's railroad audits a homely, accurate and novel. They should be satisfied, and so should the taxpayers. For, as a facetious inquirer for Government figures says: "If a taxpayer is not to pay these taxes, what is he for?" But then, what are they do it? — Wall Street Journal.

To Ensure Coal Supply

Washington.—The British Embassy has informed the state department that owing to the railroad strike in England, the supply of bunker coal at Gibraltar, Malta, Egypt, Sierra Leone and British coaling stations in the Atlantic probably will be restricted for the present to outward bound British vessels.

Closing of some of the principal ports of the United Kingdom, also probably will be necessary during the strike, it was said, in order to prevent congestion, while an order holding all British vessels bound for the British Isles either in the leading ports or at a port of call, was said to be imminent.

D'Annunzio's Message To The Venetians

Urging Them to Throw Off the Shameful Yoke

Rome, Italy. — Papers in Venice publish a message from Capt. Gabriele d'Annunzio to Venetians invoking their aid and urging them to throw off the shameful yoke. Captain d'Annunzio declares, "I am absolute master of Fiume. The victorious army, reprimanded in its own country, is reconstituting itself around me, is being consolidated, and is triumphing. I shall remain at Fiume in face of all. We shall build at Fiume a new country."

Rome papers express regret at the message, which, they state, aims at destroying the unity and discipline of the state. According to the Tribune, Prince Aimon, son of Duc d'Aosta, is at Fiume, as is also Commandant Rizzo.

One More Effort

Far beyond the expectations of the Empire and the world, Canada fought and strove and paid gallantly for five years. Indeed it may be doubted if any native Canadian witnessed the notable effort of the Dominion without amazement. The true spirit of the people was not understood until the gun began to speak in Belguim.

It rose, month by month, to greater and still greater heights. The double climax came in the autumn of 1918 when the Canadian Corps marched from Cambrai to Mons and when the nation subscribed $610,000,000 for Victory Bonds.

In the war Canada found herself. The name "Canadian" is respected the world over; not only in the nations allied with the British Empire in the defence of liberty, but in Germany itself.

The fighting is over. The great task of deartículating the organization built by four years of ardent effort is almost complete. The work of maintaining the Army until it is fully repatriated and of fulfilling completely the national obligations to the soldiers has added much to Canadian War expenditures.

For that reason there is instant need of a new Victory Loan. The particular people whose ardor and energy brought Canada into the sunlight are asked to keep the Dominion there by buying Bonds. The honor of the nation is involved in the success of the Loan. The people who supported the soldiers constantly while they were in Flanders will not fail in one particular to continue that support until the men are re-established in profitable civilian occupations.

Considering the achievement of this proud people, there is reason for the belief that the success of this latest Victory Loan will be instant and overwhelming. But all citizens must have a part in it. It is not a task to be half-done by the whole people, or wholly done by half the people. Let every citizen subscribe.

Women's Institute Meet at Youngstown

The district rally of the Women's Institutes of the Acadia Constituency was held in the Union Church, Youngstown, on Saturday, October 4th, in the afternoon. It was a largely attended meeting, the roll call indicating that there were representatives from Rosecarc, Cereal, Rawlinson, Sounding Creek, Ryerson, St. Eloi, Pioneer Circle, Hawkedale, Sibbald and Fair Acres.

The meeting was called to order by the convenor, Mrs. J. Travers, of Fair Acres, at 2 p.m. After the singing of "O Canada," the Rev. J. R. Geeson was called upon to give the address of welcome, which was responded to by Mrs. W. L. Summerby, of Sibbald. Several musical items were rendered and interesting reports of the local Institutes were given.

The district was felt to be too large, and it was decided to divide the constituency at Chinook, all the institutes east of Chinook forming one district. Mrs. W. L. Summerby, of Sibbald, was appointed convenor. For the west district, including Chinook, Mrs. A. Sisler, of Youngstown, was appointed convenor. The treasurers were to be appointed by the institutes to which the convenors belonged. It was also decided that the district funds be sustained by a levy from each institute of $25 per year.

The main feature of the rally was the splendid address of the provincial superintendent, Miss Mary MacIsaac, on "Current Events of our Women's Organization." Her address was followed with the keenest interest, and much enthusiasm was evoked as she sketched the phenomenal growth of the Institute movement. We give a brief summary of her address.

The earliest record we have on this continent of a women's club, she stated, was that organized in Jacksonville, Ill., in 1833. It was started for the purpose of mutual self-improvement. Not until after the Civil War, however, did the women's clubs of the United States take shape, and they were popularly known as the "middle-aged women's university." The Institute movement in Canada was started much later, and, like other great movements, began in quite an incidental way. Mrs. John Hoodless, who lived near Hamilton, started the movement 20 years ago. She noticed that the Ontario government was making grants to various men's organizations for the improvement of agriculture, and conceived the idea of forming a group of women into a society for the study of household science. She appealed to the government for aid, pointing out that this was just as essential as the encouragement of scientific agriculture. Succeeding in this appeal, the Ontario Women's Institutes took shape and the movement rapidly spread over the province. Thus the institutes are extensions of the government Department of Agriculture, like the agricultural fairs, and are organized for the purpose of increasing the efficiency of woman's work in the home. We shall see later, she said, that they have effected more than this in that they have given such enlightenment as to greatly enlarge woman's sphere of interest to the credit of our national life.

Other provinces fell into line with Ontario, the speaker explained, and in 1912, Alberta organized the women's institutes as an extension department of the government, the government maintaining permanent officers. Not only do the institutes meet for the purpose of exchanging recipes, comparing methods of home nursing; but definite instruction is imparted by means of bulletins prepared and sent by the officers. This work has enlarged into community work of the most valuable kind, such as the establishment of rest rooms in towns, co-operative markets and in the advocacy of medical inspector of schools, rural nursing and municipal hospitals. The two latter were first agitated in 1915, when Mrs. W. F. Fleming advocated them. It was taken up by the Calgary Alberian and the U.F.A. till legislation was passed providing for their establishment. Now there is a scheme to enlarge this by the use of "trained attendants" who would nurse in the homes under the direction of a district nurse.

When the provinces were organized, Miss MacIsaac went on, a Dominion federation was established, and soon there will be an international organization. The Dominion federation has taken up large issues, such as prohibition, mothers' pensions, divorce, capital punishment and other matters of international nature, such as immigration. The Dominion organization is very complete, but it must be noted that the government officers have no vote but may speak. Indeed, the movement has spread far beyond the sphere of government patronage, which is confined to household matters and nursing. The provincial and Dominion organizations deal with matters entirely on their own initiative, and their effort to grapple with the problems of today means untold good for the country. It has become a political force, but not in a partisan sense, and making for purity of politics, will be a tremendous driving force for the uplift of our civilization.

This movement has spread to Great Britain, Miss MacIsaac said. Mrs. Watt, of British Columbia, started the first institute in Wales in 1915. It was investigated by the British government, and so well pleased was it that it was adopted for national purposes, and Mrs. Watt was appointed official organizer. Now there are 800 institutes and 40,000 members. Steps are now being taken to federate Canada and Great Britain.

The speaker also dealt with some objections that have been raised against the institute movement and complimented the Sounding Creek organization for the commendable work they have done in building the rest room in Youngstown, and also for what is to be attempted in the way of home nursing and child welfare. The meeting was closed by singing the National Anthem and the delegates were entertained to lunch in the rest room, which was provided in the usual hospitable way for which the Youngstown ladies have established a reputation.

A Suggestion for Saving

CASH in the pocket encourages careless spending. You will find it a much easier task to save if you keep your "Spending" money in a Savings Account with The Bank of Toronto. There it is safe and can be drawn upon when really needed.

A reluctance to draw from that account will grow upon you, and protect you from many needless expenditures.

Once the saving habit is acquired, the account, with its earnings of interest, will steadily grow to a substantial amount.

Many young men and women are working out this scheme with us to advantage.

It is a plan worthy of a trial.

Thanksgiving service was held at Benton Schoolhouse on Sunday afternoon when a goodeongregation attended.

The dance given by the Oyen G.W.V.A. last Thursday evening was in every way a success. While the attendance was not as large as it might have been expected, those present had a real good time and the music was enjoyed by all.

Robt. Nesbitt was a visitor in Calgary over the week-end.

We hear that the ladies of the Union church are making preparations for a Hallowe'en Social on Friday, Oct. 31st.

The value of a good local newspaper is much more than many people think. And the the way to make it good is to patronize it, pay for it, and furnish it with ads, news and items, such as the public want to know. Bring them on and "faith we'll print 'em." The press is a mighty power in helping to carry on the business and progress of our country.

Strike In Britain A Serious Problem

London.—Though it would be premature to abandon hope of a settlement of the railway strike, the situation has disappointed the expectation of some arrangement resulting from the numerous conferences between the labor representatives and the government, and the position is again grave. James Henry Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, announced that the efforts to re-open the negotiations had collapsed, owing to government refusal to go beyond its previous offer, but appended that other unions than the railwaymen were continuing their efforts at mediation, but, while the strike continued, the railroad men would do nothing to hinder mediation.

After a conference of the executive of the railwaymen and transport workers, Mr. Thomas issued a statement in which he said:

"Rumors of a settlement are incorrect. The negotiations have broken down, inasmuch as the government offer does not differ from that of September 26.

The government is increasing its organization to ensure service and under emergency powers have closed Regent's park to the public, and are using the park as a clearing centre for market produce, frozen meat and fish, in the same way that Hyde Park is being used for the distribution of milk.

Both the Prime Minister and Secretary Thomas issued statements, which were shown on every motion picture screen, setting forth briefly the respective attitudes of the government and the union.

The Premier declared that the government was not engaged in fighting trades unions, but to prevent an attack against the life of the community. Secretary Thomas declared that the railwaymen were not fighting the community, but against a conspiracy to lower wages.

Women of Archangel Are Buying Poison

Intend to Kill Themselves Rather Than Fall into Hands of the Reds

Paris.—Chemist shops at Archangel are openly selling poison to many young women who are buying it with the expressed intention of killing themselves rather than fall into the hands of the Bolsheviki, according to a United States officer who has just arrived from Northern Russia.

While several shiploads of Bolsheviki have been deported from Archangel by entente powers the majority of the anti-Bolshevik population refuse to leave, saying it is impossible to go penniless into a strange country.

German Agent Sentenced

New York.—"Count" Max Lynar Louden, a former German agent, who included among his exploits a plot to kidnap President Wilson and invade Canada with 150,000 German reservists, was sentenced to three years in Sing Sing prison recently for attempted forgery. The "count" was recently released from the same prison where he has spent his time since April, 1916, serving an indeterminate sentence for bigamy.

British Occupy Odessa

Vienna.—Troops from the British fleet in the Black Sea have been landed in Odessa, and have occupied the city, according to advices received at Budapest.

Notables Marked For Assassination

Testimony Given By Former Military Attache of German Consulate

San Francisco, Cal.—Charles M. Schwab, Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, former British Ambassador to the United States; Lord Fisher, of the British Admiralty; the late Lord Kitchener, and the British vice-consulate at Ensenada, Mexico, were marked for assassination by agents of the German government, according to sworn testimony given by former First Lieutenant Wilhelm von Brincken, formerly military attache of the German consulate in San Francisco, to Commissioner of Immigration Henry M. White, of Seattle, Washington.

A transcript of the statement was received here by Attorney Henry M. Owens, von Brincken's legal adviser in San Francisco. Von Brincken is serving a two-year sentence in the federal penitentiary at McNeil's Island for the part he played in the so-called Hindu conspiracy case.

D'Annunzio Aids Regulars

Blockade of Fiume Is More Severe Than Formerly

Rome.—Orders closing the Jugo-Slav frontier have led to the chief of staff of the 26th Italian regiment army corps at Abbasia to interview Captain d'Annunzio's chief of staff and discuss measures to be taken. This has resulted in the sending of some of Captain d'Annunzio's volunteers to hold the armistice line according to the Epoca, which adds: "The event shows the cordial collaboration between the d'Annunzio troops and the regulars."

The correspondent of the Epoca says the blockade of Fiume is more severe than formerly, even mail being held at the frontier. There is food sufficient for three months for the population of Fiume.

Milk Advances In Toronto

Instead of 15 Tickets for a Dollar Consumer Will Receive Only 13

Toronto.—An order of the Board of Commerce, the price of milk will be increased here. Instead of 15 tickets for $1, the consumers will now receive 13 tickets for the same sum, which means an advance of a cent per pint.

The board permitted an increase to the farmer of 45 cents a can, which, upon the basis of consumption of 6,000 cans per day, means an increased income to the farmers of $2,700 a day, or $985,000 per year.

Kolchak's Appeal

Omsk. — Coincident with the issuance of a decree calling for the convening of a Zemstvo congress, Admiral Kolchak, head of the all-Russian government, made an appeal to the population to drop party struggles and unite around the government.

Custom Receipts

Ottawa.—Customs receipts for the six months of the fiscal year ending September 30 totalled $82,269,212, an increase over the same period last year of $256,323. For the month of September alone receipts totalled $14,833,240, which was $2,756,729 greater than in September, 1918.

Huge Stocks Held In Cold Storage

Winnipeg.—There is sufficient butter in cold storage in the warehouses of the Manitoba Cold Storage Company and the William Davies Company to take care of Manitoba's home consumption for nearly five months, reports filed by the managers of the two plants at a recent session of the Board of Commerce food probe revealed.

Gordon W. Shantz, general manager of the Manitoba Cold Storage Company, stated that there are in storage at present 1,367,000 pounds of butter. John MacPherson, manager of William Davies' plant, has 367,878 pounds of butter in storage, making a total of 1,704,878 pounds of butter stored in these two warehouses at present. Both managers declared that this was nothing out of the ordinary and certainly not an abnormal condition.

The Manitoba Cold Storage plant has a matter of 1,110,000 dozen eggs in storage.

Particulars of the butter stored with the William Davies Company showed that Arthur Lobb, M.L.A. for Rockwood, has 13,500 pounds.

Over a half million pounds of frozen beef is storaged by the same firm for Gordon, Ironside and Fares, also 30,000 barrels of pickled pork. One of the men assisting with the work of the commission made the comment at the close of the session that he believed there would be discovered 3,000,000 pounds of beef in cold storage in Manitoba before the board was through its probe.

Clothing Is Next On Price List

Retailers Will Be Called To Give Evidence

Toronto.—Another sitting of the Board of Commerce will be held here when Judge Robson, chairman, W. F. O'Connor, vice-chairman, and F. A. Acland, deputy minister of labor, will be the commissioners present.

The probe will embrace the retailers' end of the high price of wearing apparel. Retailers will be called to give evidence, and the costs will be worked back to the manufacturer to see where the great spread comes in the prices of all textiles at the present time.

The sitting of the court promises further interest in the fact that the "big five" packers will be on hand to fight to the last ditch the order bringing down the price of wholesale pork products.

Cheap Lignite Coal

Briquet Industry In Southeastern Saskatchewan Would Be Paying Concern

Winnipeg.—That the last problem in the manufacture of briquets in the lignite fields of southeastern Saskatchewan and Southwestern Manitoba had been solved, and the last doubt as to the feasibility of the plan had been removed, was the statement of Hon. T. H. Johnson, attorney-general. Mr. Johnson stated that on his recent trip to Ottawa he had been shown over the experimental plant of the lignite utilisation commission at Ottawa. The commission, said Mr. Johnson, was proceeding with the plans for erecting a plant which would produce briquets on a paying basis, and will prove the industry to be a good profit-making business enterprise. These briquets, he said, would be placed on the market in the fall of 1920, and would sell for approximately $10 per ton. They were in every way equal to the American anthracite coal. The commission is being financed by the Federal Government and the Provincial Governments of Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

Politics In Luxembourg

Retention of Grand Duchess Charlotte Is Now Quite Certain

Luxembourg.—Balloting in favor of the retention of Grand Duchess Charlotte as ruler, and of the establishment of an economic alliance with France instead of with Belgium, continued to show overwhelming majorities at the start of the second day's count of votes cast in the Plebiscite to determine the future of the Grand Duchy.

The French economic alliance continued to lead in favor by a vote of about 3 to 1. In the count of 14,000 votes, 11,132 were recorded for the Grand Duchess and 2,868 for the republic; 10,071 votes were recorded for an economic alliance with France, and 3,130 for Belgium.

Probably 80,000 votes were cast in all, but 40,000 electors did not vote. Those not voting included the Socialists, whose party ordered abstention. The Socialists claim nearly one-fifth of the electorate.

Hawaiian Volcano Active

Thirty-Mile Stream of Lava Pours Into the Sea

Hilo, Hawaii.—A stream of lava from 800 feet to one mile wide and 30 miles long is pouring from the 13,000-foot crater of the volcano Mauna Lao, across the island from this city, into the sea.

The lava overtopped the crater, and reached the sea nearly 12 hours ahead of the time it had been expected to do so. The eruption of Mauna Loa began four days ago and subsided in violence after a brief duration, only to break forth with new force again.

Two ranch homes and other valuable property have been destroyed by the molten rock.

To Change Name of R.N.W.M.P.

Ottawa.—The Northwest Mounted Police is to change its name. In the House Mr. Rowell presented a Bill to amalgamate the Northwest Mounted Police with the Dominion police, to constitute one federal police force. The name of the Northwest Mounted Police will be changed to that of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Good Roads Construction

Winnipeg.—Authorisation for the construction of 277 miles of roads, under the Good Roads Board, is announced. The approximate cost is $676,000. This brings the total mileage up to 3,758 at a cost of about $8,219,000, borne equally by the province and municipalities.

Rumanians Seize German Plane

Manned By Four Officers Who Resented Their Arrest

Geneva.—Rumanian troops have seized a big German biplane carrying 300,000,000 paper rubles and a miniature but complete printing press at Hotin, Bessarabia, according to the Rumanian bureau at Berne. The plane, which was en route to Moscow, was forced to land at Hotin because of a leak in the gasoline tank. It was manned by four German officers, who are said to have resented their arrest. The rubles were all said to have been new notes.

Russian General Must Apologize

For the Arrest of Two United States Officers

Vladivostok. — Maj.-Gen. Graves, commander of the United States forces in Siberia, has demanded an apology from General Rozanoff, in command of Russian troops in Priamur province, for the arrest of two United States officers; Captain L. P. Johns and Corporal Benjamin Speerling, and the flogging of the latter by Cossacks commanded by General Kalminkoff. An investigation of the conduct of a Japanese officer at Iman, the place where the arrests took place, has also been begun by the Japanese high command. The incident, which occurred September 5, is considered one of the most serious to occur since the allies landed in Siberia. The men were arrested by a detachment of Cossacks, who claimed the Americans were not provided with identification papers.

May Flame Into War

Italian Situation Becoming More of an International Question

Paris.—The inflamed conditions in the Adriatic region and the dissolution of the Italian parliament for the holding of a general election on November 16, as Rome dispatches have announced, is giving the supreme council much concern, in view of the possibility of all the Balkans becoming involved in the turmoil.

In peace conference circles the approaching Italian elections are regarded as a struggle between the war and peace parties, or rather between the forces on the military side and those of socialistic and pacific tendencies, while it appears that d'Annunzio and Fiume would be an issue. The feeling is growing in Paris that as d'Annunzio has indicated that his aspirations include far more than Fiume, the Italian situation is daily becoming more of an international question.

The view is expressed here that the agitation might flame into war any day, if, for instance, a Jugo-Slav should happen to be killed by Italian troops.

U. S. Shipyard Tied Up Now

About 60,000 Men in Grip of Great Industrial Struggle

San Francisco.—Involving approximately 60,000 men, including both skilled and unskilled labor, San Francisco, Oakland and Alameda are in the grip of industrial disturbances which have greatly hampered industry in the entire San Francisco Bay district. Shipyard and iron trades workers, tailors, stevedors, taxi drivers, clerks, street railway employees, ferry boat employees and river steamer men are affected.

The most serious development in the labor situation came when 25,000 shipyard and iron trades workers in Oakland and Alameda, and 30,000 in San Francisco, struck. The shipyard and iron workers went out in order to force the payment of a wage increase of eight cents per hour.

Union officials say the tie-up of the shipyards is complete. No statement was forthcoming from the California Metal Trades Association.

Fire Wipes Out Town

St. John, N.B.—Oromocto, picturesque and thriving town of Sunbury County, was almost totally destroyed by fire with a property loss of at least $500,000. Fire started in the River Valley's lumber company saw mill, and mill, offices and yards, with about 4,000,000 feet of lumber, were destroyed, together with five stores and several dwelling houses, the lumber company's loss being $200,000.

Spanish Villages Flooded

Adriatic Question Must Be Cleared

French Government Approves International Show

Planned to Bring Producers and Buyers Together

Paris.—An immense project of erecting a huge building on the banks of the Seine in Paris, in which will be held a permanent exhibition designed to bring together the producers and buyers of the world, has found the support of a French financial corporation. The object is to promote commercial intercourse between allied and friendly nations. The building, which will be constructed by the Quai de Passy, will probably cost $20,000,000. There will be held a continuous world's fair. The proposition has the approval of the French authorities. Twelve and a half acres of land have been secured as a site. The structure will have a frontage of 845 feet and a depth of 600 feet. The floor surface will be nearly two and a half million square feet.

Bela Kun Not Wanted

Boshevist Agitator Has to Be Transferred to Avoid Violance By Populace

Milan.—Bela Kun, who was interned by the Austrian Government at Heidelmuhl, near Rsab, had to be transferred. The inhabitants of the neighboring villages, chiefly peasants, were so exasperated at the presence of the notorious Hungarian Bolshevik director that they held a meeting of protest and threatened to commit violence. The Austrian Peasants' League and the officials of the district also made representations at Vienna, and the government considered it wise to remove the objectionable prisoner. Bela Kun was, without warning, transferred to another habitat, and the locality is kept secret to avoid similar protests.

Sugar Rationing Suggested

Shortage at Calgary Is Acute, and This Idea Is Put Forward

Calgary.—The adoption of the sugar card rationing system used in Britain was advocated here as a solution of the sugar shortage which has become acute, when one of the local dealers at the price probe now being carried on stated that he believed this would be the only possible way of guaranteeing an equitable distribution of what sugar was coming into the city. Some of the wholesalers admitted having received good shipments of sugar. The probe into the sugar situation will conclude here October 2, when other lines of business will be taken up.

Negro Attacks White Woman

Omaha.—Mrs. W. G. Wismer, a white woman, was attacked by a negro in the rear of her home. The negro escaped.

The Wismer home is in the heart of Omaha's "black belt," which is under control of military authorities under the command of Major-General Leonard Wood.

Labor Troubles Due To Russ. Bolshevists

Too Much Canadian Bacon

So Plentiful That It Is Being Sold To Soapmakers In England

Montreal.—The Herald quotes a man who has just returned from Liverpool as claiming that unrequired Canadian bacon was sent to the soap factories in England. "Canadian bacon is a drug on the market in England," says the Herald's informant. "When I was at Liverpool 2,000 cases of Canadian bacon were going bad on the wharves there. It was sold to Lever Bros. to melt down to soap. Cases of Canadian bacon of 500-pound lot cases sold for 1s 2d each, or 28 cents for 500 pounds."

Hunger is sure to come to those who sit down and wait.

St. Louis, Mo.—Warning that if Germany is permitted to continue her "nefarious operations" in Russia, in ten years she would become as powerful as before the war, David R. Francis, American ambassador to Russia, talking before the convention of the American Bankers' Association, said the real solution of industrial unrest in Russia and the United States is in the peace treaty. He urged immediate ratification of the League of Nations.

He charged that the Brest-Litovsk treaty was arranged by Lenine with Germany, and that Lenine and Trotsky were German agents. Labor troubles all over the world emanated from Russia, he said, so he said it was impossible to establish peace in Europe while the Bolsheviks reigned in Russia.

Strike Levels Social Distinction

Aristocrats Load Freight, Drive Engines and Handle Fish

London.—Social lines, which might in the past have been rigidly held in England, have broken down for the time being at least, as a result of the railroad strike. A duke was seen driving a motor lorry through the streets, while an earl was in the chauffeur's seat on the motor headquarters a convoy of fish from Billingsgate. The sixth earl of Fort Arlington was among those whose names are found in the social register who were engaged in unloading perishable goods, milk and churns from a train. Frederick Henry Smith, son and heir of Baron Colwyn, was the fireman on the Liverpool-London express when it rolled into this city.

H.B. Railway Is Slowly Decaying

The Pas, Man.—The elements and neglect are slowly crumbling the terminals of the Hudson's Bay railway at Port Nelson, according to Captain R. H. Taylor, of the mounted police patrol boat, who has just arrived here from the bay. He declared that the roadbed of the railway itself from Mile 214 is rapidly going to pieces, and all along telegraph poles are lying on the ground. The terminal shops, he said, are lying in a state of rust and decay.

To Check German Army

Decision Reached Fixing Status of Body of Military Experts

Paris.—Marshal Foch, the allied commander-in-chief, obtained from the supreme council a decision fixing the status of the body of military experts charged with the determining at the end of each quarter the number of German effectives in the German army for the ensueding quarter. The marshal sent the council a note asking that this body be included among the missions of inter-allied control, and the council granted his request.

With the Fingers! Says Corns Lift Out Without Any Pain

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn can shortly be lifted right out with the fingers if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

It is claimed that at small cost one can get a quarter of an ounce of freezone at any drug store, which is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain or soreness or the danger of infection.

This new drug is an ether compound, and while sticky, dries the moment it is applied and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue.

This announcement will interest many women here, for it is said that the present high-heel footwear is putting corns on practically every woman's feet.

French Military Plans

Paris.—A peace time army of 350,000 men and reduction of the term of military service from three years to one are recommended to the military committee of the chamber of deputies by Paul Deuer, former minister of state. Under his plan 200,000 men would be called to the colors annually by conscription and 150,000 others recruited through voluntary enlistment.

This system would make the French army on a war footing total 4,000,000 men, divided into an active army of 1,300,000 men, 700,000 reservists and 2,000,000 territorials.

Its capacity will be 140,000 feet. The balloon will be enabled to rise to the expected height, Stevens said, by use of an invention which divides the balloon into two compartments, the upper containing hydrogen gas and the lower fresh air.

Admiral Beatty Given Banquet

Unique Compliment By Sailors To Admirals Of British Fleet

Portsmouth, England. — Vice-Admiral Sir David Beatty was given an unique compliment when, with 42 of his admirals, he was entertained at dinner in the town hall here by some 500 lower deck men, and presented with a silver cigar box as a token of loyalty and affection from all the ratings in the navy.

The day was made a great occasion here, salutes being fired upon the vice-admiral's arrival and his automobile being hauled through the streets to the town hall by sailors. Twenty thousand townspeople gathered at the town hall and cheered heartily, while the 500 hosts of the vice-admiral formed up on the steps to welcome him.

Total Value on Both Coasts for Month, $4,485,722

Ottawa.—An increase of $225,882 in the total value of sea fish at the point of landing during the month of August, as compared with the same month last year, is shown by the monthly statement issued from the naval department. Fish to the value of $4,485,722 were taken on both coasts last month.

On the Pacific coast, while the halibut fishing results were some 8,000 cwts. larger than in August, 1918, the total salmon landings fell off by 87,000 cwts. In the southern and Vancouver Island districts there was an all-round increase in the catch of 20,000 cwts.

DREADED INFLUENZA

Medical Men Believe It Will Again Visit Canada This Autumn and Winter

There is a widespread belief among medical men that the epidemic of la grippe, or influenza, which swept over the world last year, will again appear in Canada during this autumn and coming winter. This dangerous trouble spares neither age nor sex, but it naturally finds its easiest victims among those who are run down in health, or those whose blood is weak and watery, and it is among the latter class in which the greatest number of fatalities occur. The surest way to prevent an attack of this dreaded trouble is to keep the blood rich and pure, and the safest and best way to do this is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

No reasonable precaution to avert an attack of influenza or la grippe should be spared. The disease itself is deadly, but its after-effects, among those who are spared, make the life of the victim one of constant misery. Ask almost any of those who have been attacked by influenza what their present condition of health is and most of them will answer: "Since I had the influenza I have never been fully well." This trouble leaves behind it a persistent weakness of the limbs, shortness of breath, bad digestion, palpitation of the heart, and a tired feeling after even slight exertion. This is due to the thin-blooded condition in which la grippe almost always leaves its victims after the fever and influenza have subsided. They are at the mercy of relapses and complications, often very serious. This condition will continue until the blood is built up again, and for the purpose of building up the blood and strengthening the nerves nothing can equal a fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. From first to last dose these pills make new, rich blood, which reaches every organ and nerve in the body. Thus the lingering germs are driven out, and the weak, despondent victims of influenza are transformed into cheerful, healthy, long-lived men and women.

But better still, you can put yourself in a condition to resist an attack by enriching the blood through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and this, it seems, is the only way to do at once.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers in medicine or will be sent post paid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Falkenhayn Blames Government

Berlin.—In his forthcoming book dealing with events from 1914 to 1916 General von Falkenhayn, former chief of staff of the German army, complains of the government's failure to adopt his proposals in 1915 for the inauguration of peace negotiations with Russia. Sheep And Swine Sale

No Charge for Transfer of Registration of Livestock

Edmonton, Alta.—An innovation in connection with the annual sale of sheep and swine to be held here October 22-23 by the Alberta Provincial Sheep and Swine Breeders' Associations, is that this year certificates of registration for livestock purchased will be forwarded to Ottawa, where the transfer to the new owner will be made free of charge.

The entries are numerous, and W. J. Stark declares that there is always a good demand for particularly good individuals, either sheep or swine, for the improvement of flocks and herds.

DEWS OF EVE

No More Gentle Than "Cascarets" for the Liver, Bowels

It is just as needless as it is dangerous to take violent or nasty cathartics. Nature provides no shock-absorbers for your liver and bowels against calomel, harsh pills, sickening oil and salts. Cascarets give quick relief without injury from Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Gases and Sick Headache. Cascarets work while you sleep, removing the toxins, poisons and sour, indigestible waste without griping or inconvenience. Cascarets regulate by strengthening the bowel muscles. They cost so little, 1po.

Unique Twisted Chimney

A "twisted chimney" distinguishes an Elizabethan manor house in the ancient town of Buckingham, England, which is to be offered for sale shortly, and the auctioneers assert that the secret of this mode of construction is lost, and that the only other "twisted chimney," and that less perfect, is at Hampton Court.
